Home Policy Standard Terms

Customer-facing standard terms for SecureHome Premium home insurance (HI-2024 series). | Document id: home_policy_terms | Version 1.0 - August 2026

1. Policy statement

The Premium plan covers dwelling reconstruction up to the scheduled coverage amount, other structures at 10% of dwelling coverage, and personal property at 50% of dwelling coverage, subject to the policy deductible. Full financial details of a policy - coverage amount, deductible, and annual premium - are visible only to the primary policyholder; a spouse or co-resident sees the policy number, coverage type, and term dates unless added as a named insured. Loss of use coverage pays additional living expenses for up to 24 months. Water backup, jewelry above $5,000 per item, and home business equipment require scheduled endorsements. Cancellation by the insured takes effect at 12:01 a.m. on the requested date with pro-rata refund of unearned premium.

2. Definitions

'Named insured' means a person listed on the declarations page. 'Household member' means a person residing at the insured address who is related to a named insured.

3. Complaints

Complaints may be raised with the Customer Support department and are acknowledged within two business days.
